Dedication

In dedicating this, the '51 Sarahi to our friend, ally, and principal, Mr. Ted Bohm, we know that we are only in small measure, expressing the affection, respect and appreciation of the hundreds of students who have learned to know and to love him during this year and during the years, past.

We, of the Sarahi staff, wish it known that any successes we may have achieved with this record of our high school days are due in no small part to Mr. Bohm, whose constant cooperation and ready appreciation were the prop and spur to all our efforts

Prologue

Four years ago, against odds that can be appreciated only by those who have surmounted them, Carolyn Skoog and Marv Blaske (lower right) brought out the first issue of the SARAHI with Carolyn accomplishing the titanic task of assembling the book, and Marv taking care of the finances. The next year, Mary Ellen Kardash and Phyllis Reinert (top left and right) divided the editorial chores and added the padded cover. Last year, editor Jean Nierengarten (lower left) introduced a number of innovations, giving a fresh appeal to the book and opening the way for more experimentation. With such precedents as our model, the 1951 staff, headed by Mary Ann Germann (left center) has attempted something truly different, it is the hope of the staff that you will regard your 1951 SARAHI as the best of them all.

Senior Class History

One of the smaller classes of the past several years, the class of '51 has nevertheless set up an enviable record in school achievement. As seniors we are especially proud of this, our yearbook, and our spring production of "Rip Van Winkle" as well as for our part in the purchase of the new stage cyclorama, which we did in co-operation with the classes of '48 and '50. Our class has been chiefly noted for its competence in completing any task to which it was committed.

In September of 1947, 58 strong, started as freshmen in the Russell Junior High. After a "get acquainted" program, we elected Leona Koepp our president. We had our share of representation on the Student Council with one of our classmates, Bonnie Case, acting as president. Our projects were many during the year. Our biggest celebration was a Valentine Party at which time we chose as king and queen, Reinhard Hoaglund and Bonnie Case.

Entering the Senior High we were caught in the twirl of growing up, feeling a little awkward at first. We started our Sophomore year by naming Bonnie Case our leader. Under her management Valentine's Day was celebrated again, this time with an all-school party. For the Homecoming activities we placed Bonnie Case and June Curtis as attendants to the queen.

During our Junior Year under the leadership of Delroy Orlowski, we progressed in the high school. Leona Koepp was the Junior Homecoming attendant. Delrose Bergstrasser received the honor of being elected to Girls' State and the Junior-Senior Prom was one of the outstanding social events of the year.

Outstanding in sports among our classmates were Rog Swalowski, Delroy Orlowski, and Reinhard Hoaglund.

At Homecoming time we chose Shirley Kosloske to rein over our activities, with her 3 senior attendants as: Bonnie Case, Eleanore Lezer, Leona Koepp. To head the Student Council in our Junior year we chose Donald Partch to see that the school had some organization. With these few parting words we hope to enjoy the future as much as we have enjoyed the past.

Jr. Class History

As the largest class to occupy the high school in the past several years the Class of '52 gives promise of being one of the outstanding graduate groups of this institution. There were early evidences of this promise when as Freshmen we promoted a gratifyingly successful magazine drive and purchased a movie projector with the proceeds. Tom Baker was our class president and Tom Baker and Rhea Koepp were chosen King and Queen, for the annual Valentine's Day party. The year's end picnic at Municipal Park was wet but successful.

Getting adjusted to the "big school" was our main problem as sophomores, but with Jim Jahn as our Class president and with Lou Bolinski, Edris Bjorklund, and June Koepp to assist him. Our class came through with considerable success sharing with upperclassmen the credit for a very successful extra-curricular year. Shirley Petron represented the class in the Homecoming Coronation pageant.

As Juniors we numbered 80, the largest class of the three. Elections of class officers brought Lou Bolinski to head our class. Jo Ann Poganski and June Koepp were chosen Vice President and Secretary-Treasurer. To begin the year we sponsored a get-acquainted dance to raise funds for our class treasury. At Homecoming time we chose Edris Bjorklund as attendant to the Homecoming Queen. For our Junior class play we chose "Stage Door" and also participated in many activities, such as speech, debate, one act plays and also placed many of our athletes on the football and basketball teams. With the help of Miss Allen, Mr. Ashley, and Mr. Bense we worked with the other students to make our school a better place and with that thought we are looking forward to our Senior year with great confidence.

Sophomore Class History

On a beautiful day in September, 1949, 72 eager and enthusiastic pupils entered the doors of the Sauk Rapids Jr. High to start their Freshman year.

They began their first year in High School by electing Jack Ryan, President of the class and Joanne Erstad represented the "Frosh" as President of the Student Council.

To keep the year from getting dull and monotonous, many extra curricular activities such as the Dramatic, Craft, and Press Clubs were successfully organized under the direction of the faculty. The yearly Valentine Party was climaxed by the election of Queen Marjorie Harrington and King Milton Monnier.

Although the "Frosh" thought they were very important in the Russel Building they found themselves being "Little Sophs" when they entered the Senior High. It was hard for them to accustom themselves to their new position, but within a few weeks, all was well in the "School On The Hill".

The Sophomore class advisors, Miss Falconer, Mr. Conley, and Mr. Malkovich helped them with their many activities throughout the year. Milton Monnier was elected class president and Mary Lou Timm and Jack Ryan represented the class on the Student Council.

The class looked forward to and thoroughly enjoyed their first picnic with the "big" boys and girls.

At the time this section was due, we didn't have any One-Act Plays finished or any Potensic work, but we were started on them and in the process of producing them

Looking over a debate book are Vera Pilantz, Clara Pilantz and Joyce Renner

Erie Homelbrink looks as if he is pointing a warning finger, but he is just trying to prove a point to Milton Monnier, Jo Ann, Irtstead, Edris Bjorklund, Allan Thoman and Helen Sandquist

The negative debaters John Stock and Norbert Otto and the affirmative speakers Delma Carivem and Charlie Marx are looking over material for debate

Dance after the debate with St Johns

QUEEN SHIRLEY KOSLOSKI

Co-Captains George Adams and Roger Swalowski crown Shirley Kosloski, Homecoming Queen of 1950

The four Homecoming Queen Candidates
Bonnie Case, Shirley Kosloski, Leona Koelp, and Eleanor Lezer.

Beanie Day was popular among the students and teachers alike because it added to the festivities, and all shared in the fun.

Homecoming

Preparations were made in the morning for the parade. Here it shows the students working on floats and painting up cars for the "big event."

Air view of the parking area just before parade time

Under the guidance of Miss Allen F.T.A. was organized. Its purpose is showing the students the joys of teaching.

DRIVERS Education

Drivers Education was organized by Mr. Braton, in order to teach the students the fundamentals of driving. In the course of the class the student takes both a written and a driver test.

"Stage Door"

The Junior Class presented STAGE DOOR. The play was directed by Miss Falconer and student directed by Richard Mayavski. These are some pictures taken during the course of the play.

RIP VAN WINKLE

This year the Senior Class decided to do something which had never been done here in Sauk Rapids before. They decided to put on a play which would take quite a few changes of scenery and a long time for production. We didn't have any trouble in finding a boy to play Rip because we already had someone who would fit the part to a T, Norbert Otto. Here are some shots of the play cast and the crew, trying to look busy for the camera.

AThLeTe of The Year

ROGER SWALBOSKI

A five year letterman in baseball, all-conference in basketball and football, an all-district guard in basketball, and a letter-winner in track, Roger is, without challenge, the outstanding athlete of the Class of '51. In his senior year his teammates elected him captain of the cage squad and co-captain of the grid eleven. Additional proof of his leadership has been evidenced in his efficient participation in class, music and dramatic activities.

Increasing admiration and respect both locally and throughout Central Minnesota have been the rewards Jack Conley has reaped for his untiring and inspired efforts. As a teacher, as athletic director, as a coach, and as a man, Mr. Conley is an outstanding example and inspiration for all those with whom he works.

Assistants to Mr. Conley are Richard Ashley and Sam Malkovich, co-coaches for track and assistants in football and basketball, respectively.

For the faculty game Miss Allen and Miss Krantz willingly consented to become cheerleaders. Here they are introducing a new yell called "Hit 'Em High, Hit 'Em Low." You can imagine which part they are demonstrating

These two action shots show Mr. Winslow and Mr. Ashley trying to keep the Faculty team right up there with the B-Team. Although they tried hard the B-Team proved to be the victors and beat them by 1 point. Better luck next time

Shirley Kosloske, Head Cheerleader; Mary Ann Germann, David Godbout, Eleanor Lezer, Carol Knafala, Edris Bjorklund, Jo Anne Erstad, Helen Sandquist.

These girls came in second in a talent contest held by the cheerleaders, but Mr. Malkovitch won the first prize of a carrot. The girls thought their act was much better, and we enjoyed their dancing and nonsensical acting.

CheerLeaders

The new Sauk Rapids Band being directed by Mr. Jack Conley, who does just about as good a job as can be expected from what he has to work with. They played some classical and some popular pieces, and managed to create a great noise.

These are a few shots that were taken during the North Sub-District Speech Contest, which took place at our school on March 14. Sauk Rapids placed 6 contestants in the District. They were: Charles Marx, Delores Reginek, Rhea Koepp, Jo Anne Erstad, Linnea Soder, Helen Sandquist.
